Resolved, That we approve of the platform of principles adopted by the National Democratic Convention. It falters in no double sense—its language is explicit and its meaning clear—the issues presented to the country are plainly and unmistakably defined, and, with a free and fair election, we confidently believe they will be endorsed by a large majority of the people—and with that endorsement must come such a change in the administration of the National Government as will restore the Constitution and give peace, harmony and prosperity to the country, and especially to the down-trodden States of the South.

Resolved, That it is our earnest desire and intention to bring about these wholesome and necessary changes by the peaceful means of the ballot-box—and all efforts to produce a contrary belief, coming from what quarter they may, are but the tricks of interested partizans of a desperate political faction, bent upon perpetuating its power by any means and at all hazards. They are attempting to alarm the people of the State by the falsehood of revolution and war, threatening them at the same time with military force; while, in other States of the South they have not hesitated to take from the people the election of electors of President and Vice President, and to waste vast swords under minority rule without freedom of choice and with no regard to the question of the Presidency, in order to secure the electoral votes of such States for the Radical candidates, in disregard and defiance of the just rights of the people of such States, and of the whole country.

Resolved, That it is our frank purpose now, and has been since the close of our late civil war, to accept and abide by, in good faith and without disturbance, the legitimate fruits and consequences of that war; to yield to the Government of the United States a cheerful submission and allegiance, and to perform all the obligations of good citizens to their rightful Government. And we do proclaim that, in asking recognition on terms of equality in that grand copartnership of States which constitutes our Federal Union, we do so with no hostile intent; on the contrary, we wish to share its benefits and its duties; to rebuild our waste places under the protection of its flag; to re-establish the old era of good feeling in our common country; to thwart the designs of unpatriotic men everywhere, who seek to perpetuate discord and division; and to participate in the blessings, as well as the burdens, of the government.—Resolutions adopted by the State Democratic Convention of North Carolina, Aug. 14, 1868.

THE SPOILS PARTY.

Never, in the history of parties in this country, has there been a tithe of the waste, extravagance and plunder upon the public Treasury, which have been carried on by the Radical party. During the war, it was enormous, but the spoilers only seem to have gotten their hands in, and they have mended on it, since the war closed.

We stated, some days ago, upon reliable data, that the people of the United States had actually paid into the Treasury, since the war closed, $1,500,000,000.

The following figures were made from official papers and enunciated in a speech recently delivered in Massachusetts, by a leading Radical speaker, Edward Atkinson, Esq. He is deemed by the Radicals to be entirely reliable. He says that there was collected from the people, into the United States Treasury, from the 1st. of April, 1865, to the 30th. of June 1868, (three years and three months,):

From Customs	$546,978,848
From Internal Revenue	812,336,278
" Miscellaneous Sources	178,743,769
	$1,538,058,895

Of this $546,978,848 was collected in gold, which was equal to $765,000,000 in green backs. Nearly three-fourths of the whole public debt has been collected since the war. If the government had been administered with proper economy, three-fourths of the amount collected might have been applied to the reduction of the debt. The statements in regard to the public debt are conflicting,—some alleging that the debt is greater than in 1865, and others showing that it has been reduced some $222,000,000, instead of being reduced at least $1,000,000,000.

The history of the country shows that the Radical party is radically incompetent to conduct the government, morally, intellectually and financially, and that the time has come to commit the keeping of the government to safer hands. The short experience we have had in North Carolina corroborates that teaching, and shows, most conclusively, that the State, in two years, under Radical rule, will be utterly bankrupt.

THE CHARLOTTE Bulletin says that, in consequence of the miserable partisan mismanagement of the affairs of the North Carolina Railroad, the merchants of that place, generally, will have all their goods shipped via Charleston.

OPEN ROBBERY OF THE PEOPLE—RADICAL USURPATION—ANOTHER SHAMEFUL OUTRAGE ON THE TAX PAYERS OF THE STATE!

In nothing have the Radical leaders, "carpet baggers" included, manifested more anxiety, than to get possession of the public corporations, and, especially, the Rail roads, in this State. The main object was to get to use and prostitute the immense amounts of money, the patronage and the Roads, for Radical political purposes and gain, without regard to the interests of the State or the private Stockholders. As evidence of this, four fifths of the officers of the corporations, appointed by the Governor, so called, have no stock in the Railroad Companies, or only a nominal amount, and some of them are "carpet-baggers," who do not reside in the State, and as many of them are notoriously incompetent for Railroad officers.

Well, what do we see? The Railroads, wherever the Radicals have the power, are prostituted to partizan political purposes and to enrich Radical favorites. During the late Convention, thousands of negroes came to this City on the North Carolina Railroad, to attend the negro Radical celebration. Hundreds of these negroes paid nothing to the Company, while others paid numerically less than two cents a mile. To illustrate plainly the villainy perpetrated: The regular fare, as we learn, in going from Raleigh to Charlotte and back, is $20. The negroes were allowed to come from Charlotte to Raleigh and return for $6. The charge for all distances is in like proportion. Thus it is, the decent white man is made to pay $20; the negro $6, and, in many instances, nothing at all—and for what? To swell the numbers that attended the negro Mass Meeting. On this same Road, the white men, who own and run it, and who pay taxes to pay for the State's Stock in the Company, had and have to pay full fare as stated above, when they come to the Capital to attend Mass Meetings or celebrations, while the negroes, who don't pay any tax, or comparatively none, come and go for less than two cents a mile, and scores of them for nothing! That is the only difference! All this to build up the Radical negro power in the State!

Who paid and pay for this Road? The tax payers and private stockholders of the Railroad Company. Who thus prostitute the Road? Men who own no stock in the Company, who, most of them, don't pay any tax, "carpet-baggers," in and out of the State, and thriftless negroes, who are made the tools of the worst type of the white man that now curses the world. What do they care? Nothing! Why need they care? They own nothing; they pay no taxes; they have all to gain and nothing to lose! If they are told they will ruin the State and the people, they mockingly laugh at you! They don't care; they have nothing to lose; they pay no taxes! Let the tax payers help themselves, if they can!

Tax payers of the State, good men, true men, who hope to live for the good of your country and families, and who yet hope to have a country, no matter what party you belong to, how long will you submit to this and such outrages on your rights, by the worthless and vicious? Have you no sense of injury done you? Have you lost your manhood? We tell the people they ought to stop this system of plunder and outrage. The Courts and every lawful means should be resorted to, to suppress such lawless plunder of the body politic. Verily, the worthless and the vicious, including the wandering "carpet bagger" from everywhere, rule, revel and triumph by and through negro supremacy in poor down trodden North Carolina! Is there no help? None, unless the people of all classes awake from a lethargy that is blasting their hopes and blighting their country.

THE CONGO MASS MEETING.—The white Radicals deserve a severe rebuke for the manner in which they treated their colored brethren during the Mass Meeting. Every effort was made to induce the colored people to join them in a Mass Meeting and Barbecue, and they came in large numbers.—They gave it out that a large sum had been raised to defray the expenses of the occasion. We hear it said that $5,000 were expended for the occasion, and yet we learn that large numbers of the colored people could get nothing at the barbecue, and that many of them, hungry and weary, were compelled to go to sleep at night on the floors and steps of the Capitol, in the porches and piazzas on the streets, &c. If a portion of the funds had been expended in putting up shelters, furnished with straw, far better provision would have been made for them.

But the most positive ignoring of the colored race was shown in the universal refusal of the white Radicals to walk in procession with them. We are informed, and it can be proven, that, with the exception of the few white marshals and others, on horseback, only two white men walked in the procession on Wednesday night. These were GEORGE Z. FRENCH, of Wilmington, and J. W. RAGLAND, of Granville. French, by this act, will merit the nomination to Congress in the third District. Will he not?

MCDONALD, THE ELECTOR.—We have a good joke on "Cousin John." While the Congo Procession was passing up Fayetteville Street, on Wednesday night, there were quite a number of scallawags and carpet-baggers, including Mac himself, standing in front of the Yarborough House,—none of them disposed to join in the war dance with their sable brethren. The music and the lights, however, had the effect of rousing Mac. He let off, substantially, thusly:—"Gentlemen, this will never do. Our colored friends will think hard of you,—will think that you are ashamed to be seen in their company. Gentlemen, I implore you, for the sake of patriotism and policy, to join in the procession. Fall in! FALL IN!" Just here an unmoved scallawag quietly remarked, "Why aint YOU in the procession, yourself?" Mac mizzled!

The Radical war cry—"Up with the negro and the taxes. Down with the white man and the trade of the nation."

REV. DR. BOLLES, of Boston, of the Episcopal Church, regards "the success of the Democratic party in the coming election as the success of the Christian religion."

There is more reason, than mere sentiment, in the opinion. The mere success of this or that political organization, as a party, can have no direct influence on Christianity, and, in the past history of the country, such an idea would have been scouted.—But, for the last ten years, the Christian Churches of the North, so-called, have, in a great measure, taken their type of feeling, sentiment and action from the political organizations of the country, rather than from the Bible.

The doctrines of the equality of the negro with the white man, and the abolition of slavery, had their origin among the infidels of New England. Garrison, Kneeland, Thompson, of England, Theodore Parker, and all the early advocates of those views, were infidels, and assailed the Bible as vehemently as they did the Constitution of the United States. Its next lodgment was among the Unitarians of New England—first those that were semi-infidel, and then those considered more orthodox. The rigid, morose, uncharitable and Puritanic character of New England was a fit soil for the growth of these political heresies, and it spread among the Presbyterians, Baptists and Methodists of the North,—the latter finally taking lead in zeal, violence and the spirit of hostility to slaveholders.

The so-called religious people of the North, together with the preachers they have sent South to educate the negroes and alienate them from their real friends, the whites, have done more to prevent the harmony and restoration of the country, than all other causes. The spirit of infidelity, of uncharitableness, of illicit gain, and harsh judgments of others has so crept into the Northern Churches, and they have become so identified with the Radical party and its success, that there is little hope of the return and revival of the meek, gentle, loving, forgiving spirit of Christ's religion, so long as that party predominates. A different spirit prevails among the Democracy. Whether this is prompted by the mere desire of success, as the Radical's charge, or not, it is so much more lovely, so much nearer like Christianity, than the bitter, persecuting, hostile spirit of Radicalism, that the proposition of Dr. Bolles, that the success of the Democracy is the success of Christianity in the country, is very clearly demonstrated. If it be so, should not every true Christian labor for the success of Democracy?

For the Sentinel.

A FRUIT OF RADICAL TEACHINGS.

In Davie County, there lives a Dr. Hobbs. He joined the Radical party, bon y fogled the negroes, promised them land, &c., and, to reward him for his boot-licking, they sent him to the Kangaroo Convention.

A short time ago, a party of his black constituents came to him, and said: 'Doctor, we want work. You've got a big plantation, and we want you to hire us." The Doctor replied, that he wanted no work done, and could not employ them.

The negroes, indignantly: "Now dat is a great way of doin bizness! You told us as how you'd give us forty acres and a mule apiece, if we'd vote for you. We done so, thinking you was a gemman, and by doin of it, made our ole marster mad wid us, and he says he ain't got no further use for us.—All de Sarvatives say as how dey ain't a gwine to have nuffin more to do wid us,—'case we vote fur de scallawags. An if you Publikins don't give us work, we'll starve. We's obleeged to live, as well as you and mars Holden. De Legislatur and de Standard paper, and dat tedder man, Mister Little—Little—Littlebull, I believe, says as how we must'nt starve, when dar is corn and bacon about." Dey say it ain't no harm fur boil folks, like demselves, to take udder people's corn and bacon, like dey used fur to do afore dey was 'lected to offis. Good mornin, Doctor," and they walked off grumbling.

A few nights thereafter, a band of negroes entered the premises of the kind Doctor.—They did'nt merely steal a lot of his bacon and corn. Oh, no! Inspired by the doctrines set forth in the Legislative address, and the teachings of the Standard, they literally tore down the Doctor's smoke house, carried off all his corn and bacon,—ransacked the premises, and set his barn on fire!

The Doctor had several of the negroes arrested. On their way to jail, they espied the Doctor, when one of them exclaimed, "You send us, who vote for you, to jail!—I reckon we won't stay in dar always, and whenever we do git out, we'll finish you!"

North Carolinians! Behold the fruits of Radical teachings! Will you sustain a party, whose leaders tell the idle negroes to steal your corn and bacon, rather than work for an honest living? Will you choose for rulers, wicked men, who incite the negro to break into your quiet homes, terrify your wives and children, ransack your premises, steal your corn and bacon, and burn your barns? If Grant and Colfax are elected, what guarantee have you that the leaders of the Republican Party, the men who now incite the negro to steal, will not themselves rob and pillage?

If the members of the Legislature, men who represent Massachusetts and Africa, but make laws for you, and tax your property to make piles for them to steal from, now tell their black constituents to steal rather than work, who can swear that they themselves will not soon gather their "loil leaguers" around them, and raid on your property, steal your corn and burn your barns?

Have we not reason to fear that Windy Billy, at the head of his league, will prowl around the stables, where your mules are kept? That old Cuffee Mayo, with a regiment of Melish, will be after your pistols? That greasy Sam will drink your "stills" dry, and steal all your grease gourds? and that the great legal Jaybird will rob your peacocks of their tails, and make your strutting-gobblers sicken, pine away and die from envy?

Let Grant and Colfax be elected, and not only will your corn and bacon be stolen, and your barns burned, like the poor Doctor's—but your lands will be taken, negro pauper villages will be built around your dwellings, and negro melish camps established on your wasted fields, near your smoke houses and close to your corn cribs. If you would save your bacon, and live in peace, and thrive and prosper, vote for honest and patriotic men—like Seymour and Blair. Elect Grant and Colfax, and there will be War! or starvation!! For, when "loil-negroes" are ransacking your premises, stealing your corn and meat, and setting fire to your barn, where is the man, so cowardly, who would not then FIGHT TO SAVE HIS BACON?

DAVIE.

The Bond Holders and Tax Payers.

LABOR PAYS THE TAXES.

In the political discussions at the North, much is said about the taxes and the bond holder. Every working man who buys coffee, sugar, salt or iron is taxed to pay interest on the U. S. bonds, just in proportion as these articles are taxed by the tariff law. Much too is said about paying the bonds in gold and in currency.

The following from a recent speech delivered by the Hon. T. A. Hendricks, at Jeffersonville, Ind., is instructive.

"You are told also that the Democrats declare in favor of equality of taxation, and that, therefore, they are in favor of taxing your lands to support the Government of the United States. Now, I wish to read you just what the Democracy have said upon the subject of taxation. Our platform declares for—

"Equal taxation of every species of property, according to its real value, including government bonds and other public securities."

Equal taxation upon all species of property. I endorse that sentiment, and when the Democracy declare in favor of equal taxation they say let every man pay according to his ability; let every man pay according to the profits of his business. Now let us see whether lands have to be taxed any more. We say equal taxation. I stand by it, for it is just. Your lands you may cultivate ever so well, but when you pay your tax, when you meet the expenses incident to the cultivation of your lands, if you make three per cent. on your investment year by year you have done well. But the banker and merchant expect to make from eight to fifteen per cent. upon their money, so that every other investment can bear a heavier tax than land can bear. The lands of Indiana support the State, county, and town expenditures. I say that is more than their proportion of taxation, even if bank and bond stocks were now taxed, according to profits.

In the fourth article of the Republican platform it is declared:

"It is due to the labor of the nation that taxation should be equalized and reduced as rapidly as the national faith will permit."

Notice the difference in the two platforms. Republicanism says equal taxation so far "as the national faith will permit." The difference does not relate to your land or your horse, or the grain that grows upon your land. The difference relates to bonds.—There is no question of national faith in taxing lands as national property, but when you come to tax bonds then they say national faith will not permit it, because when issued they were not liable to taxation.—The Democracy say, "equal taxation upon all species of property," including bonds.—The Republicans say equalize taxation as far "as the national faith will permit," but the national faith don't permit you to tax bonds. I ask you men who work in shops and upon farms, which platform does justice endorse? That platform which says all shall contribute their proportion, or the other which declares that one sixth, and that the most productive, shall be exempt from taxation? Can you give a good reason why, if I had money to day to come and purchase this farm that lies adjoining these beautiful grounds, I should pay tax on that, but if I invest the same money in Government bonds, I should pay no tax on it? If I managed the land well, that might bring me three per cent per annum, but the bonds, without any management at all, bring the owner from eight to nine per cent. Will any man tell me why the first should be taxed and not the other?

The bonds represent nearly one-sixth of the property, and are exempt from taxation, while every other species of property is subject to taxation. The Democracy say that must not continue. Taxation must be equalized, and to every lady and gentleman who believes taxation ought to be equal, I appeal this afternoon for support of the Democratic cause.

While I am speaking upon this subject, I will go a little further upon this question of bonds. A very important question is, how shall they be paid? My answer to you is, they must be paid according to contract. The Democratic platform on that point is very specific. It reads:

"Payment of the debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable, all money drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the Government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide, that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States."

That is the Democratic platform. That is, where the bonds don't call for coin, or where the law under which they were issued does not call for coin, they may be paid in lawful money of the United States. The law of Congress of 1862 has declared Treasury notes lawful money of the United States. The difference between Treasury notes to day and gold is about forty-four cents and if you make these sixteen hundred millions of bonds payable in coin instead of Treasury notes, you make the public debt, in the bondholders' pocket, seven or eight hundred millions more than it is worth according to the spirit and letter of the law.

Let us turn to the Republican platform:

"We denounce all forms of repudiation as a national crime; and the national honor requires the payment of the public indebtedness in the utmost good faith to all creditors at home and abroad, not only according to the letter but the spirit of the laws under which it was contracted."

Do you observe what that resolution provides for? Upon that resolution General Grant to day stands. He proposes to pay the public debt not only according to the letter, but the spirit. If there was a difference between the letter and spirit of the law, the Convention ought to have declared what that difference was. Can you tell what it means that these sixteen hundred millions of bonds shall be paid not only according to the letter, but according to the spirit? If spirit means gold, why didn't they say it? If paper, why didn't they say it? They didn't intend the people should understand them. But a construction has already been given to this resolution. The Radical Congress has put a construction upon it. That construction is, that all bonds of the United States are to be paid in gold. About two weeks before the adjournment, Mr. Sherman, of Ohio, Radical chairman of the Committee on Finance, called up what is called the funding bill, and pressed it to a vote, and carried it through the Senate. The House adopted it with some amendments, and it was presented to President Johnson only five minutes before the adjournment of Congress. He did not sign the bill, and therefore it is not a law to-day.

The bill was this: That bonds that did not call for gold, either upon their face or in law, might be surrendered and new bonds issued in their stead. These new bonds were to run for forty years, and when due to be paid in gold. During all that period of forty years they were not to be subject to taxation, for national, State, county or municipal purposes. Thus, by the funding bill that the Radical party passed, these bonds that might now be paid with greenbacks were to be taken up, cancelled, and new bonds issued; those new bonds not becoming due within forty years, but each year interest to be paid in gold; and when the forty years expire the principal to be paid in gold; and during all this time no taxation.

Don't you wish, Radical friends, that Andrew Johnson had been impeached so that Ben. Wade, of Ohio, could have been President to have put his name to that bill and made it a law? Don't you feel you would have been happier men? He would have signed a mortgage upon you and your posterity; for, in all probability, the clouds of the valley will be over your head before that debt expired, and your boys and girls would have to bear the burden fastened upon them by the Radical Congress.

If you don't want that to be the law, then you must express you views in tones of thunder at the October election, so that it cannot be mistaken at Washington City.—There is but one influence that is heeded at Washington, and that is the terrific voice of the people. They care not for the Constitution or the demands of honor and justice; but when the people say if you don't do this according to our pleasure we will hurl you from power, then they do heed that. Let it be heard in October and November, saying that there shall be no paper bonds made gold bonds afterward.

Do you think it is right that one sixth of the property of the nat on shall go untaxed? Let me explain by illustration made by Hon. Mr. Allen, of Illinois.

A bondholder in your neighborhood having invested $100,000 in bonds, takes his family in his carriage for a pleasant ride upon your highways. As they go along his wife said to him: "Why, these roads are better than they used to be."

"O, that," says the bondholder, "was done last spring."

She asks, "How was it done?"

"He answers, "The Road tax was collected last spring, and this was made a fine road."

"Well, my dear, how much did you have to pay?"

"Nothing at all. My money is invested in Government bonds, and Congress says it is not right for me to pay tax upon bonds."

"Well," says she, "this is good for you, but little hard on the rest."

They ride on and come to a beautiful school house; everything comfortable for the children; nice grounds, and a cool well of water.

"Why," says his wife, "here is a nice school house put up since we rode along.—How much did you pay for that?"

"O, not anything. You know that was done by tax. They had to collect ten or twenty cents upon every one hundred dollars' worth of property in the district to build this house. My old neighbor had to pay this upon his lots, and that widow lady over there paid too, and they made it up.—But I don't have to pay any. My money was invested in bonds, and Congress would not let me pay."

"That is good for you," says the wife, "but a little hard on the rest of them."

"There is a big school there, and they have hired a good teacher. Our four little children ought to go to school this winter. I guess we had better get them ready. Perhaps next year we will send them off to college. We will not have to pay to school them. All that is collected off the other property of the country. My bonds don't have to pay any taxes, you know."

Now, there is a little neighborhood history for you. There may be no bondholder in your neighborhood, but there is a bondholder somewhere.

The Democratic party say equal taxation upon all property, "including Government securities." I am amazed that any man says to the laboring man, "you pay no tax." The most ingenious schemes of taxation must in the end bring the burden upon the shoulders of labor. In former times, it is said, there was a hotel in the western part of England called the "Six Alls," and the sign in front represented its meaning. There was painted upon the sign a king, with a crown upon his head, and underneath him was written "I rule all." To the right of the king was a lawyer, with a wig, and underneath the lawyer, "I plead for all." To the left was a doctor; underneath the doctor was, "I cure all." Above was a preacher, with gown upon him, and he said, "I pray for all." At his side was a soldier of the army, and underneath the soldier, "I fight for all." Beneath all was the picture of a laboring man, and underneath him would be, if the story were all written, "I pay all." I say to you, that has been the history of the world. The king rules, the lawyer pleads, the doctor physics, the minister prays, the soldier fights, but the laboring man pays for it all."

JNO. POOL IN THE WEST—CHEERING NEWS FROM THE WEST.

HAYESVILLE, N. C., Sept. 10, 1868.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—You will please publish the following, if you are so disposed:

On yesterday, (15th.,) while the Wilmington train was taking water here, loaded with "niggers" to the Radical "pow-wow" in Raleigh, a crowd of them went into a barroom and called for liquor. While waiting on one portion of them, others stole the money box and contents, and two decanters of whiskey. The box and decanters were recovered, but they pocketed the money—about five dollars in change.

Such is the character of those forming the "grandest affair," as it will be called. Such a Convention, made up of such characters, is a great honor to a Country, to a State, and to a Party of high moral ideas (!)

The above are facts.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1868.

HON. SION H. ROGERS,

The Conservative and Democratic Candidate for Congress, will address the people of Johnston, at Smithfield, on Monday next, 21st. inst.

TICKETS! TICKETS!!

Our friends throughout the State must be sure to have tickets enough for every precinct, at the approaching election. Let each county supply its own tickets and order them in good time.

STATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE ROOMS.

The commodious room in the Smith building, on Fayetteville Street, immediately over the store of Douglas Bell, Esq., has been secured for the use of the State Democratic and Conservative Executive Committee. It will be the Headquarters of the Committee, and the Secretary of the Committee will always be on hand for the transaction of business.

Documents for the information of the people will be issued as rapidly as possible.

It is suggested that every Conservative and Democratic paper in the State send their issues during the campaign to Headquarters.

COL. HAYWOOD'S SPEECH.

We have only time and space to say, this morning, that the speech of Col. Ed. Graham Haywood, in Tucker Hall, last evening, was listened to by a large audience with profound attention and rapt admiration and pleasure. It was a noble and masterly vindication of the Constitution, and a powerful assault upon the Radical destructivism of the day. As an intellectual effort, it has rarely, if ever, been surpassed in this City.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—One thousand bushels of Seed Oats: E. J. Parrish.

Hats, Furs and Straw Goods: J. W. Betts, (Successor to Gould & Betts,) 349 Broadway, corner of Leonard St., New York.—This is, in all respects, a reliable and enterprising House, and responsible Southern Merchants can buy on the usual terms,—notwithstanding the idle and unfounded rumor that New York merchants would only sell to the Southern trade for cash, the present season.

Plain and Fancy Candies, Raisins, Figs, Citron, Sardines, Jelly, Cigars, &c.: A. D. Royster, Fayetteville Street. Mr. Royster keeps one of the most complete Confectionery establishments in the City, and the public will find his store "a good place" to call at.

Messrs. W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co. make a splendid announcement for the Fall Trade. They have the largest stock they have ever offered and are prepared to accommodate both the Wholesale and Retail trade. Read the attractive catalogue which they offer the public this morning.

Pool & Uzzle, No. 12, Fayetteville St. Dealers in all kinds of Groceries: An excellent, energetic Firm, who always keep up with the times.

THE POLE RAISING, TO DAY.

We hope that the Seymour and Blair men of the City, generally, will turn out, this afternoon, at the Flag Presentation. The ladies will be present in large numbers, and we should show our appreciation of their generous and patriotic sympathy by an enthusiastic rally. Let the different Ward Clubs be present in full force.

The pole is to be raised in front of the rooms of the Democratic Executive Committee, on Fayetteville Street, but the presentation will take place in Tucker Hall.

By request of the ladies, and in their behalf, the Flags will be presented by Capt. W. Hal Harrison, and, by invitation of the Committee, they will be received by Seaton Gales, Esq.

There will be several speeches, by other gentlemen, who have been invited to address the assemblage.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS.—Our "Drawer" is burdened with communications. We will publish them as we may be able to find room. Our friends must bear with us.

THANKS to our friends, Neill S. Stewart, Esq., of Harnett, N. R. Bryan & Son, of Moore, and Jno. A. Oates, of Sampson, for Clubs of subscribers to the Sentinel.

MASS MEETING IN STOKES.—A great Democratic Mass Meeting is to be held at Danbury, Stokes Co., on the 1st of October. The Hon. Thomas A Flournoy, of Virginia, the Hon. Wm. A. Graham, Colonel R. H. Cowan, and other distinguished speakers, will be present.

WILSON.—There was a glorious rally of Democrats and Conservatives at Stantonsburg, on the 12th. The number in attendance was very large and enthusiastic and a fine barbecue was provided. The people were effectively addressed by W. G. Morsey, Esq., Hon. George Howard, James F. Speight, Esq., of Greene, G. W. Whitfield, Esq., and by Abram McKenzie and Lewis Levy, two colored orators.

WINDMILL SQUIRES.—Charles Smith, negro, of Halifax, appointed a Justice of the Peace by Holden, can't write his name. He put his ✕ to his official oath! We have this information from a gentleman who is personally cognizant of the fact. Poor old North Carolina!

UDOLPHO WOLFE.—C. J. Piquet, Agent of Mr. Wolfe, is in the city for the purpose of establishing an Agency here for the sale of Schiedam Schnapps.

THAT TEL LIE GRAM.—We shall pay our respects, in our next, to the astounding tel-e-gram sent to the New York Tribune by J. Paige & Co."

UTTERLY SHAMELESS.

The State Capitol and grounds, at the recent Radical mass meeting, were thrown wide open to the hundreds of hungry, sleepy, dirty negroes who attended, but for whom the plethoric Radical purse could not or would not furnish other shelter. There they talked, laughed, cavorted, huzzaed, made speeches, sung songs, preached, slept and emptied their filth. Now, persons are employed in cleaning the building OUT AT THE PUBLIC EXPENSE. All this, we suppose, is perfectly right in the estimation of Radicals. Who threw open the Capitol as A SLEEPING HOUSE FOR THE NEGROES? Why, of course, Gov. Holden.

The ladies of this city have purchased a beautiful United States flag to present to the Seymour & Blair Clubs of this city.—On yesterday, Mr. Douglas Bell, as the organ of the ladies, determined to show the authorities the unusual courtesy of applying to "Gov." Holden for the use of the grounds in front of the Washington Monument, for the purpose of making the presentation. Gov. Holden, after consulting the heads of department, ordered the following reply:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
RALEIGH, Sept. 18, 1868.

DOUGLAS BELL, Esq.,

SIR:—I am directed by Gov. Holden and the heads of Departments, to inform you that they decline to permit Union Square to be used for the purpose requested by you in the name of the Conservatives. Any other public Square in the City may be used for the purpose indicated.

Very respectfully,
ROBT. M. DOUGLAS,
Private Secretary.

We call the attention of the people of North Carolina to this shameless, ungallant and mean partizan act, on the part of the authorities. Let the friends of Seymour and Blair throughout the State bear this in memory. Let even honest, sober Radicals calculate, if they can, the contemptible meanness of the act, and let them shield their leaders, if they can, from the merited scorn and contempt with which this act will be met. Heretofore, the public have not wanted to ask the authorities for the use of the grounds, for any public object. No one has, heretofore, been refused or complained of for claiming such a privilege, but Radicalism never loses an occasion to vent its cowardly spleen, even against the purest and fairest of God's creatures!

SECOND CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

The Democratic Convention for this District assembled in Newbern, on the 17th.—All the counties were represented except Edgecombe. We have only space to say that Col. Thomas S. Kenan was unanimously nominated as the candidate for Congress,—a worthy compliment to that accomplished gentleman and a fit recognition of his services in the last campaign.

ONE OF THE OUTRAGES.—During the late Ashantee War Dance, everything and every interest, public and private, were made to succumb to the negroes. The Capitol, as we have heretofore said, swarmed with them, day and night, and the porches and piazzas of citizens were taken as dormitories. Burke Square, though owned by the State, has been rented out, with the buildings on it, to the Rev. Dr. Mason and Mr. Ryan, for their school. The latter gentleman resides, with his family, in one of the buildings. And yet this rented Square was selected and used as one of the places of public speaking, where hundreds of yelling negroes were collected. Of course, school was out of the question. This was a great trespass on private rights. But what do these mean care for that?

HURRAH FOR GRANT AND COLFAX.—During the late Congo Convention, in this City, Maj. B. C. Manly, of this vicinity, had six fine pigs stolen from his premises, and two other gentlemen, whose names have been given us, lost eight and forty chickens, respectively.

MORE LAWLESSNESS.—The Goldsboro' Rough Notes says that a gang of negro soldiers, a few days since, entered one of the colored churches in that place and assaulted the colored preacher in his pulpit, while he was preaching his sermon. They tore up his Bible, scattering the leaves in every direction, and otherwise behaved most shamefully.

MAINE.—The last New York World has the following encouraging telegram from Maine, relative to the recent election in that State. The majority grows "smaller by degrees and beautifully less." As we have heretofore stated, the Associated Press, by some means, has fallen into extreme Radical hands, and their dispatches must be received, between this and the elections, with many grains of allowance:

BANGOR, Me., Sept. 15.

The Republicans of this city, including the Hon. Hannibal Hamlin, are greatly discouraged at the result in their State. They had confidently counted on 25,000 majority for Chamberlain. Returns received to-day indicate that it will not exceed 15,000, which is a Democratic gain of nearly 13,000 from 1866, the last test vote in the State.—The Democrats throughout the State are jubilant, it being conceded before the election that anything less than 20,000 Republican majority would be a Democratic triumph. For ten days before the election the Radicals freely bet on from 20,000 to 25,000 majority. Large sums of money have changed hands to-day, the Radicals paying up their bets. In the cities and a few large towns, where the Radicals hold absolute control of the polls, they made large gains over last year; but the country towns generally show large Democratic gains. The Radicals have spent half a million of dollars in this election.

CHAS. W. ROBERTSON,
E. W. FLAGG.

A GOOD JOKE.—A gentleman who was on the cars with Kornel Billy Henderson, Esq., on the day of the Radical meeting at High Point, heard Billy tell a gentleman he did not expect to speak, but had no doubt I quite a demonstration would be made over him, when he reached High Point. When the train stopped, our informant, being anxious to see the demonstration, watched the Kornel, and he said as soon as he struck the platform a tremendous shout of "here's your mule" greeted him. Rather a shabby reception.—Greensboro Times.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

KINSTON, Sept. 14th, 1868.

Messrs. Editors:—It is gratifying to mark the enthusiasm everywhere kindling, as the campaign against Radicalism advances.—The glorious demonstration that took place at Newbern, on the 8th instant, will be long remembered by those who were fortunate enough to be present. One of the most interesting features of the occasion was the meeting at the Seymour and Blair wigwam at night. The utmost harmony and good feeling prevailed in a common effort to forget the political differences of former years between Whigs and Democrats, and unite for the salvation of the country from its unhappy condition under the baleful influence of Radical rule. Among those who addressed the meeting was our esteemed townsman, James H. Dibble, Esq., who has been favorably mentioned in connection with the nomination for Congress, to be made for the second District, on the 17th instant. Mr. Dibble has always been an active partisan, but until recently he never made a political speech. Our cause has touched with fire the tongues of many heretofore silent, and I trust the verdict of an outraged people will thunder the doom of our relentless oppressors on the 3rd of November. God speed our deliverance!

Mr. Dibble said it was well known that he was of Northern birth, but that he had been a resident of the South a number of years—about thirty. He was well known also that he had been before the war an uncompromising Whig. He had travelled a good deal in the Second Congressional District, and had met and talked with many old Clay Whigs, who all agreed that the Democrats had held out the olive branch and met them at least half way. He thought himself the Democrats had met them more than half way. The old Whigs had always thought they were right and for that reason had voted against the Democrats, submitting to defeat with the determination to meet them again another day, but the contest had been fair and honorable. New issues, however, had arisen, and they were now all united against a common enemy for the overthrow of Radicalism and the restoration of the Government to a constitutional administration. He was satisfied that the Democrats would cheerfully support any old Whig who might be nominated by the party into which they had all been incorporated, and he trusted the Whigs would be as generous towards any old Democrat who might be brought out.—He appealed to the colored men present to stand by their old and tried friends of the South in this crisis. The carpet bagger dropped here by the Federal army would certainly deceive them and could not properly represent them in any capacity. He was a carpet-bagger himself, but he was one of thirty years' standing. The old carpet-bag might be worn and dusty, but it had something good inside—his heart was all right. He believed with Major Hughes the heart of the people was right, if some of their ambitious leaders had fallen into temptation. He knew the Southern people well. They could be depended upon in any emergency and the colored people would find it out. They had taken him by the hand when he came a stranger among them, and had proved themselves to be true friends. He should never in their day of calamity turn his back upon them. He hoped the colored people would consider what he had to say to them and be orderly and industrious.

Mr. Dibble sat down amidst much applause, but afterwards came forward during an interval in the speaking to say that he had forgotten to state he should vote for Seymour and Blair, and that he believed every Northern man of his acquaintance who had lived here before the war would do likewise.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING IN ALLEGHANY.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the citizens of Alleghany county was held at our Superior Court, at Sparta, on Wednesday, the 9th. day of September, 1868.

On motion, John Gambill, Esq. was called to the Chair and Capt. Horton S. Reves appointed Secretary.

The meeting was then addressed by Capt. Todd and Col. Cowles, with telling speeches, showing the importance of the crisis; after which, the Chairman appointed J. H. Parks, Wm. Warden and Capt. H. S. Doughten, to draft resolutions suitable to the occasion. After retiring a short time, they presented the following resolutions which were read and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we endorse the principles of the New York Convention of July 4, 1868, and believe the selection of candidates for President and Vice President, a wise and judicious one; that we hail with untold delight, the enthusiasm with which the action of that body has been recognized; that we recognize, in the great revolution now taking place in the minds of the American people, the complete overthrow of the monarchial party, and, with its downfall, the return of peace and prosperity to our down-trodden country.

Resolved, That among the many great issues to be decided by the present contest, but few, if any, are more important to the laboring man than the financial question.—We would invoke the tax payer to pause and see to what an endless slavery he is being consigned by the bond holders and the corrupt office holders of the country.

Resolved, That we will use all peaceable and fair means to carry out the principles of the Conservative party, and triumphantly raise to the Presidential chair, our gallant standard bearers, Seymour and Blair, in November next.

Resolved, That we would urge upon every Conservative to be awake to the importance of the occasion, and to work earnestly and faithfully for our cause; we would advise prudence and forbearance from all violent demonstrations, calculated in any way to disturb the public peace.

Resolved, That our thanks are due, generally, to the Conservative members of the Legislature, and, especially, to Plato Durham, our candidate for Congress, and that we cheerfully endorse the selection of him as our candidate.

Resolved, That this body appoint a day upon which we will have a grand barbecue and ratification meeting of the Conservatives of the county, at Sparta, (say on the 17th. day of October,) to which every body is invited, and that the Chairman of this meeting appoint a Committee of five to confer with prominent Conservative speakers and invite them to be present and address the people on that occasion.

Resolved, That the Chairman appoint a Committee of arrangements, of five in each Captain's District, to carry into effect arrangements for said Mass Meeting.

Resolved, That the thanks of this body are due and hereby tendered to Dr. J. L. Smith, our Representative, for the firm and able manner he represented us in the last session of the Legislature.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the Sentinel office, for publication, and other papers favorable to the cause be requested to copy.

SEYMOUR AND BLAIR IN JOHNSTON.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—On Saturday, the 11th. inst., there was organized, at this precinct, a Seymour and Blair Club. About seventy-five names enrolled. This district has been, heretofore, one of the worst in the county, in giving support to Radicalism. But I am happy to state that a great re-action has been going on for some time and is still progressing. I can safely calculate that three fourths of the votes cast here, next November, will be for Seymour and Blair. At the last election, the Radicals carried the day by five majority. If the Conservatives increase their strength over the whole county, as they have done here, (and there is no doubt but that they will,) we will carry the county most handsomely at the next elections.

Our Club was organized by calling Mr. Amos Coates, to the Chair.

Calls being made for Mr. Edmundson, he explained the object of the organization most forcibly, dealing out to Radicalism heavy blows on all sides.

The following gentlemen were elected permanent officers of the Club, viz: J. P. Edmundson, President; Amos Coates, Vice President; Romulus J. Easton, Secretary.

On motion of Chairman appointed a Committee of Five, Messrs. R. W. Young, L. H. Sanders and T. J. Coates, to draft Resolutions for the Club.

The gentlemen, after retiring, reported an excellent series of resolutions, which were unanimously adopted. Among them are the following:

Resolved, That as the freedmen are now entitled to the privilege of suffrage, and, in the nature of the case, will, with few exceptions, take side with one party or the other, we will endeavor to bring them into our ranks, by mild persuasion and reasoning—showing them on which side their true interest lies—too much being at stake to sit silently, with our hands folded, and let the Radicals carry them, as they have done heretofore, by misrepresentation and absolute falsehoods.

Resolved, That we will, each of us, help the other in this great contest, working individually and conjointly endeavoring to influence all within our reach to come up and cast their strength with us—the only party that can save an almost ruined country.

Resolved, That it is but natural and right for every man to befriend those who do not work against their interests, and we pledge ourselves that we will always give preference to Conservatives over Radicals. Self preservation prompts us to to this.

On motion, it was agreed that the members meet again on the 2nd Saturday in next month.

Old Johnston is all astir. Her lamp is burning brightly; her wick trimmed, ready to emit flames brighter and still brighter, until the dawning of the better day when peace and the Real Union, resting for support upon the Constitution unimpaired, as it was, shall crown our efforts.

SELMA, N. C., Sept. 16, 1868.

Editors Sentinel:—I noticed, in to day's Sentinel, a letter from Yanceyville, stating that Col. John T. Dewease furnished his "frank" to the Register in Bankruptcy and Sheriff of Wake. I was in the Post Office, in this place, on yesterday, when one of our citizens received a letter franked "John T. Dewease, M. C." He opened it and found it to be from a merchant of Raleigh, sending him a bill of some articles ordered of him.

A CARD.

SEVERAL months ago, I purchased the entire stock of goods owned by BRANSON, FARRAR & CO., and continued the business, changing the name afterwards to Branson & Jones, and advertising myself as Proprietor and Mr. Branson as Agent for the N. C. Business Directory.—But as some persons seem, erroneously, to consider it a partnership or to blend the interest of the former firm with my own I shall henceforth conduct the business under my own name alone. Mr. Branson will continue to be General Agent for the N. C. Directory, which will necessarily engage most of his time and attention.

I shall be pleased to furnish our friends and the public with BOOKS, STATIONERY, SHEET MUSIC and other articles in our line, at lowest CASH prices.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Our Afternoon Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18, M.

The Attorney General decides that officers mustered out, but continued in position as Freedmen functionaries, are entitled to the pay and allowance pertaining to previous rank.

The Attorney General is considering whether the Quartermaster General can allow for steamboats pressed by the Federal Government during the war and lost in the Confederate States.

Both these questions were submitted by the Secretary of War.

Claims for premises occupied by the Federals, for hospital or other purposes, have already been decided adversely. The same principle applies to crafts, respecting the use and wear and tear, but where impressment resulted in the total loss, is still held for consideration. These principles apply to location of property used, without regard to whether the owners were North or South during the war.

[SPECIAL TO THE SENTINEL.]

The Fifth Congressional District!

SPLIT AMONG THE FAITHFUL!

WINDY BILLY NOMINATED!

A Bolt takes place and the Bolters Nominate Tourgee!

GREENSBORO', Sept. 18, P. M.

W. F. Henderson received the regular nomination.

This occasioned great indignation, excitement and bitter feeling.

Finally, "Judge" Tourgee, Dick (of the Supreme Court,) Welker, the Chairman and the Secretary bolted, met and nominated Tourgee, who accepted.

Windy Billy swears that he will run, being the lawful nominee.

The confusion is indescribable. X.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18, P. M.

Schenck, this afternoon, has no doubt of a quorum on Monday.

FROM MASSACHUSETTS.

BOSTON, Sept. 18, P. M.

John Quincy Adams accepts the Democratic nomination for Governor.

He criticizes the reconstruction measures of Congress as the vital question, saying: "I will not argue the constitutionality of reconstruction. There is almost an unanimous disinclination among Republicans to allow it to undergo scrutiny. The Supreme Court would seem to confirm the reported statement of the lamented Stevens, 'that only two damned fools in the party believed that the reconstruction acts were constitutional.' Even if constitutional, I should deem them unwise. The Union they impose is, to my eyes, no more like a true Union of hands and hearts than a galvanized corpse resembles a healthy man."

The letter closes: "I think neither the interest nor destiny of this people will allow a permanent domination to the African race in any State, but the Republican party is irrevocably pledged to this idea. They have staked their existence as a party on its triumph. To this idea they have sacrificed their Constitutional obligations, and for it they must make the first offerings. In the future, the blacks must have lands, arms and a standing army to maintain them in their position. They are clamoring for them now. The United States must furnish them.

The path upon which Congress has entered permits no halt. The retreat is to run. We must begin anew, taking the Constitution for our guide and the natural laws for our limitations."

HEAVY FROST.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 18, P. M.

OREGON, Sept. 18, P. M.

COLUMBIAN COLLEGE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

The PREPARATORY, September 9th; the COLLEGIATE, September 23rd; the THEOLOGICAL, October 7th; the LAW, October 14th and the MEDICAL, October 19th.

This College was organized with a reference to the oft urged suggestion of WASHINGTON that a University, at the Federal Metropolis would tend to the "assimilation of the principles opinions and manners of our countrymen, by the common education of a portion of the youth from every quarter." Its graduates have verified the expectations of Madison and Monroe, that the facilities of hearing debates in Congress, arguments in the Supreme Court and Lectures from eminent men and of visiting Libraries and Collections in science, gathered at this centre, would foster a comprehensive mental development.

The Preparatory School gives a thorough training for business, and preparation for College. The College proper has eight efficient professors; all the Chairs being filled. The Theological School has three Professors and Lecturers; the Law School four, and the Medical ten. The expenses are as low as at other Colleges—Number of students the past year, 434. For Catalogues or further information, address,

VEGETABLE PILE OINTMENT.

TO THE PUBLIC.

For 25 Years I was sorely afflicted with the Piles. After trying every remedy I could hear of and failing to receive any benefit, in 1857, I discovered a remedy, purely vegetable which effected an entire cure and I have had no return of it.

Anxious to relieve the afflicted and to promote my own benefit, I made public my discovery and had the gratification to know that my remedy cured a large number of persons. My ointment was advertised in the public prints and I met with great success, until the war came on.

By the advice of friends, I have determined again to manufacture the OINTMENT and offer it for sale. Any number of certificates of its value could be obtained if necessary.

Price of box $1, and postage. (fifteen cents.) As soon as I can make arrangements, I will put it in the hands of the druggists of the State.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION!

THE PLATFORM.

"The Democratic party, in national convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the Government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or re-agitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences; and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys draws from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the Government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation of every species of property according to its real value, including Government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the Government and the people, the laborer and the officeholder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bondholder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the Government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secury negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the Government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the State militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the Government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign Powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty, and individual rights; and the maintenance of the rights of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claims of foreign Powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the Government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge, under which alone was rallied that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as is in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of the Government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next, and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjected and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated, and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and it sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated Government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary, and void; that our soldiers and sailors, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people, and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the Government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson, (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

NEW YORK.

THE

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

NEW YORK.

Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the STOCK system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURE, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the 'Universal' the sum of $11,751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474.

The difference between these sums ($3 277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured, contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent. greater; and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent. payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

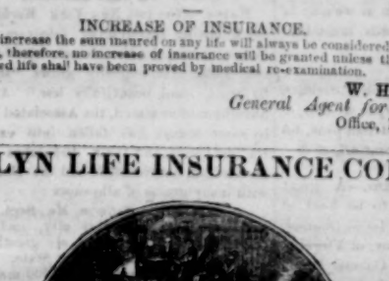
NON-FORFEITING CASH RATES

OF THE

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF HARTFORD, CONN.

ASSETS, $10,000,000.



DIVIDEND, Fifty per Cent.

$130 to pay every 100 of Liabilities.

57,000 Members, and constantly increasing.

DESCRIPTION OF POLICIES.

First.—Whole Life Policies.

Second.—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten, fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term; or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the published rates, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue.

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made, the dividends will always be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a percentage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

This system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON FORFEITURE RULES.

No Whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payments, as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends then accumulated, will purchase—taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

No Whole Life or Endowment Policy shall be forfeited by an exposure of the assured life in violation of the conditions expressed therein, unless death shall occur EITHER OR IN CONSEQUENCE of such exposure, when the full Cash Value of the Policy, together with all accumulations from dividends, will be paid upon its surrender.

INCREASE OF INSURANCE.

Applications to increase the sum insured on any life will always be considered as applications for new insurance, and, therefore, no increase of insurance will be granted unless the unimpaired condition of the assured life shall have been proved by medical re-examination.
